Dear President

ACCESS TO JUSTICE: Police, courts and prisons
6 to 17 October 2008

We were in touch in April this year about our study programme "Access to Justice: Police, courts and prisons" which is scheduled to run from 6 to 17 October 2008. This two-week UK study programme is aimed at policy makers, practitioners and senior decision-makers across the justice sector, including lawyers, court administrators, police and prison managers, prosecutors and people concerned with the rights and welfare of those charged with or convicted of criminal offences. The programme will explore strategies being adopted to modernise the management of and enhance access to justice. It will focus on the UK criminal justice system with a view to sharing good practice with and among participants from a range of different backgrounds.

We thought we would let you know that we still have places available on this programme and that we would be very pleased to welcome you, or a colleague, if you are able to participate. The tuition fee for the programme is £2,950.

If there are any further details you would like or if you would like to discuss any aspect of the programme please let us know.

Kind regards.

Yours sincerely

Claire Cameron
